

Christmas at Summerville

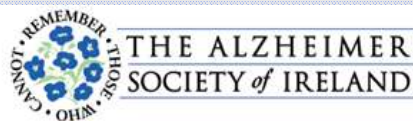

HO, HO, HO It Christmas at Summerville

Welcome to the Christmas edition of the Summerville Newsletter. We have organised a whole host of activities and events over the Christmas period which we hope you will all enjoy. Ransboro and Strandhill National Schools will be coming to visit and entertain us with their Christmas choirs. The Residents Christmas party will be held on the 17th December 2010 at 3pm in the Lobby and the Strandhill Parish Carol Service will take place on the 16th. These are just some of the events to look out for over the Christmas period. For a full list of activities and events see the reverse of this page. We would like to take this opportunity to wish you and your families a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Ha, Ha, Ha

A debonair man in his late eighties visited a classy cocktail lounge where his gaze immediately alighted on an attractive woman some twenty years his junior. Trying to remember his best pick-up line, he asked her, "Tell me, do I come here often"?

We would like to say a big thank you to all who supported Michael Gilmartin in the Dublin City Marathon on the 25th of October last. Your generous donations help raise €95 which went towards the much needed funds the society needs to provide services for families in Ireland living with dementia. So thank you once again for your support and congratulations to Michael for running the 26 miles in aid of The Alzheimer Society of Ireland.

Christmas Reflection.

The Magi were led to Christ by the light of a star. But they saw the star only because they were not afraid to travel in the dark. The fact is – we cannot see the stars in the bright light of day but only in the darkness of night; And the darker the night, the brighter they shine. In a sense, all of us are night-time travellers. However, we need no longer fear the darkness, because with the coming of Christ a light has come into the world, a light that shines in the dark, a light that no darkness can overpower.
