NEWS OF THE MONTH

HALLOWEEN PARTY

We celebrated our annual Halloween party on Thursday 29th October 2009.

The party “kicked” off of with Irish dancing form Orla Gilligan, who entertained us all with two reels and one hard jig. Orla was followed by resident John Joe Herity with his own rendition of Sligo Bay. Our resident beautician Linda Burke was next and she entertained the gathering with some ballad singing and story telling.

It was then time to eat and boy did we! Chefs Jimmy and Andrew prepared wonderful party food which left all with satisfied tummies. As residents enjoyed a tippie the evening continued with wonderful music and song from Noelle Carroll on flute and vocals and Elsa Kelly on harp.

We would like thank all who volunteered their services, as the evening was a great success and thoroughly enjoyed by all.

DID U KNOW

A skunk can spray its stinky scent more than 10 feet

Human thigh bones are stronger than concrete.

It's impossible to sneeze with your eyes open.

More Monopoly money is printed in a year, than real money printed throughout the world.

HA HA HA

A Bear, a Lion and a Pig are arguing over which of them scares humans the most.

“I only have to growl and people get nervous,” says the bear.

“Well, I only have to roar and people run away terrified,” says the Lion.

“That’s nothing,” says the Pig. “I only have to sneeze and the whole world panics.”

DE PROFUNDIS - PSALM 129

Out of the depths I cry to you, O Lord: Lord, hear my voice. O let your ears be attentive To the voice of my pleading.	My soul is longing for the Lord More than watchman for daybreak. Let the watchman count on daybreak And Israel on the Lord.
If you, O Lord, should mark our guilt, Lord, who could survive? But, with you is found forgiveness: For this we revere you.	Because with the Lord there is mercy And fullness of redemption, Israel indeed he will redeem From all its iniquity.
My soul is waiting for the Lord. I count on his word.	Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, And let perpetual light shine upon them.
